

Factor Trees

A factor tree is used to find factors of a number and express that number as a product of primes. Each branch is split into factors and ends on a prime number.

 Example Write 120 as a product of prime factors.

